Hey there! I'm a freshly graduated fashion student from Presidency University. My style of working is versatile and experimental which is why I try to push myself to the limit and work outside of my comfort zone. I am always looking for opportunities to challenge my skill and expand my knowledge. Aside from able to curate a unique and functional clothing, I also take interest in creating it in less harmful way!

Work Experiences

INTERNSHIP

May 2024

New Times Group, Buying House

DESIGNING AND MERCHANDISING INTERN

During my internship for 3-months at New Times Group's buying house, I assisted my mentor and designer in creating tech packs, sketches, moodboards, Trend research and visited industries for more insights. I helped develop range plans, designed graphics for menswear and kidswear, and collaborated on projects for various brands.

Jul 2023

Amar Kosa (Start up)

CROSS - FUNCTIONAL INTERN

As a fashion intern at Amar Kosa and a startup brand in eco-fashion for 2- months, I managed merchandising and stock inventory, conducted in-depth research on competitor brand, trend analysis and market conditioning. Also kept updates on new sustainable materials and closely observed the next season collection designing process, supported exhibitions, implemented design ideas, and contributed to conscious fashion marketing strategies.

PROJECT

November 2023

Revival of Jamakkalam Handloom (Craft)

I spearheaded a project focusing on the revitalization of craft. Partnering with a local loom industry and Nandhi Carpet, I facilitated the enrichment of the product, aiming to establish new market channels and increase exposure for this traditional craft..

July 2022

Weavers Service Center, Bangalore

Participated in a month-long observational training program at Weaver's service Center, facilitated by the state government, gaining insights into printing and dyeing techniques.
